

The Latest COVID-19 Updates For Independent School Employers: The FFCRA, The CARES Act, And Recent Agency Guidance

Everyone has been carefully following the recent Coronavirus/COVID-19 outbreak. Over the past several days, federal and state governments have taken a number of response measures affecting independent school employers. In this interactive webinar, two of our experienced employment and education attorneys, Matthew D. Batastini and Brian B. Garrett, will review the latest COVID-19 developments and their impacts on independent school employers, including:

- The Families First Coronavirus Response Act
- The Coronavirus Aid, Relief And Economic Security (“CARES”) Act
- State Shutdown Orders And “Essential Business” Exceptions
- Navigating A Partial Or Complete Workplace Shutdown
- Telecommuting Best Practices
- Considerations For Furloughs And Layoffs
- Keeping The Workplace Safe For Remaining Employees And Boarding Students
- Implications Of Federal And State Employment Laws – Unemployment, FMLA, FLSA, ADA, OSHA And WARN

In addition to these pressing employment issues, Matt and Brian will briefly explore remote learning hot topics at independent schools. Please join us for a robust discussion of these and other emerging COVID-19 developments important to independent school employers.
